D'Annunzio Proclaims Fiume Independent

Action Caused by Private News From Paris—Could Not Wait Until Sept. 12

Paris, Sept. 9.—A Moscow wireless communication picked up today says: "The Polish government is mistaken if it has illusions that the military situation has undergone unfavorable changes, as, owing to the reserves sent to the front, the military situation of soviet Russia once more is brilliant."

We adhere, as ever, to the conditions of our ultimatum. The hope for a lasting peace but owing to the incessant struggle of the Polish workmen for peace with Russia, we have the right to conclude the Polish ultimatum. An armed workmen's militia without injuring the cause of peace.

The soviet government hopes for the moral support and sympathy of the working classes of all countries. The British government would oppose with its usual vigor the formation of an armed bourgeois militia.

"The Polish government suddenly shows a great desire for peace, the result of the ultimatum," expressing hope that the negotiations will be concluded at the earliest possible moment. D'Annunzio declared he had received private news from Paris which forced him to declare Fiume to be independent today and he could not wait until Sept. 12 as he had intended.

ALLMAN PLACES BRANDEGEE'S NAME BEFORE CONVENTION

CONVENTION HALL, HARTFORD, SEPT. 9.—

Amidst the hubbub the resolutions committee met, redrafted resolutions agreed to some hours before, and went with delegates to the assembly.

Senator McLean, who was cheered, he took the gavel and again he made permanent chairman. The organization was quickly effected. The house rules were adopted and Judge Malone of Bristol read a resolution to recognize women's interest in the party and to provide for their place in the party machinery by adapting the rules to conditions. The report was accepted.

Col. L. M. Ullman, left arm in a sling from a slight injury, took the platform and placed Senator Brandegee's name before the convention for senator. The name was cheered, on presentation and Chairman McLean declared him to be the unanimous choice.

Colonel Ullman in his speech said: "Mr. Chairman, Gentlemen—I think we are all of one mind as to whom we should nominate for senator and you heard that name always right. But I do know that the man whose name I present is a red-blooded American and one whom every one of you can depend on. I wish to present to you the name of Frank B. Brandegee."

COUNCIL UNABLE TO AGREE WITH NEW CONSTITUTION

Fiume, Sept. 9.—(By The A. P.)

The resignation of the national council was due to the fact that the council was unable to agree with D'Annunzio's new constitution for an independent state.
